CITY NEWS

There was a settlement and decree in the estate of Julia Velmar, late of this lity, in probate court Friday.

There was a settlement and decree in probate court Thursday in the estate of flichard J. Devereux, late of this city.

A daughter, Rhea Blanche, was born Murray of 33 Pearl street, at the Mary Fletcher hospital.

H. J. M. Jones, chairman of the Ver-mont coal committee, has appointed J. W. O'Sullivan as local chairman for the city

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Holden started yesterday for Florida, where they plan to spend the winter. They are making the journey in their Cadillac car.

Margaret Madigan of this city was appointed administratrix of the estates of John Madigan and Mary A. Lynch, both Inte of this city, in probate court Thurs-

Eliza A. Ladd of Essex was appointed executrix of the will of J. F. Ladd, late of Essex, at the probate office Tuesday. F. W. Hall and Irving A. Gilbert of the same

Thomas F. Corvin and family have gone to Middlebury, where Mr. Corvin has a position with the Burlington Ren-dering company, as manager of that Gerald Grow, who for several years has been a clerk in the department store of the F. C. Luce company at Waterbury, enter the employ of F. D. Abernethy in this city.

Horace M. Carter of Salisbury was enlisted at the local navy recruiting station Monday as a hospital apprentice, second class. He was sent to his home to await Mr. Carter is a graduate of the Albany College of Pharmacy. Miss Mary Bouchard of 184 Elmwood avenue and Adelard LeBianc were married Tuesday morning at St. Joseph's Church by the Rev. J. A. Lacouture. They were attended by Miss Cora Muir and Edward Murray.

Dr. William Bullock of the United States medical reserve, who went recently to France, has written relatives in transfer to England. He described the trip across as being without any untoward incident.

Miss Helen Grace Garnhan of this city and Ward E. Griffin of Waterbury, N. Y., were married at the parsonage of the First Church last evening by the Rev. C. C. Adams, pastor of the church. The Wilber E. Monty of Colchester was appointed administrator of the estate of Claude Monty, late of Colchester, in prohate court Thursday. Elroy McNall and Peter Hanson, also of Colchester, were appointed commissioners and appraisers.

The marriage of Dr. Leo G. Weishaar of this city took place Thursday at St. Mary's Cathedral, the Rev. Joseph F. Gillis officiating. They were attended by David Ramsay and Pauline Townshend.

Perry R. Miles of this city was appointed administrator of the estate Eliza Lawson, late of Hinesburg, in pro-bate court Monday, C. J. Russell of this city and C. W. Pierce of Hinesburg were appointed commissioners and ap-

Mrs Mabel P. Dobbie, at present of New York city, was recently granted a divorce in Newport, R. I., from Walter J. Dobbie of this city. The petition was heard on depositions, and a divorce was with custody of the child.

John L. Griswold, a former student at the Vermont Business College, enlisted In Seattle September 1 in the medical department. He is now stationed at Camp Lewis. American Lake, and has been

Frank Villemaire of Colchester was appointed administrator of the estate of Alfred Farmer, late of Colchester, in procourt Friday, Chester A. Brow-and Bert Hine of the same were appointed commissioners and Torrence W. Grow of Westford was ppointed administrator of the estate of Lemuel L. Irish, late of Westford, in probate court Monday, George A. Stuart and W. W. Kimball, both of the same place, were appointed commissioners and appraisers.

Mayor and Mrs. J. Holmes Jackson will move into their new residence or South Willard street to-day. What will be done with the Smalley home is a matter of speculation at present. It is that they were classmates at the Uni-the intention of Dr. Jackson to sell a versity of Vermont graduating in the class diate family and is survived by he part of the land off in the near future

The annual ball for the benefit of the Burlington Police Relief association will be held on November 14 at the armory. The purpose of the funds obtained at these affairs is to assist the families of deccase help in a financial way the members themselves when sick or otherwise disabled.

Prof. A. H. Gilbert, who has spent the summer working on diseases of beans in connection with the university extension service, has finished his experiments here and returned to Washington, D. C., to continue his appointment there. Profesor Gilbert is on a leave of absence from the University of Kentucky.

A telegram received by Mrs. Mary A Sawyer of Grant street from Y. M. C. A. headquarters in New York says that a cablegram has been received announcing the safe arrival of her son, Roy D. Sawyer. Mr. Sawyer is associated with a Y. M. C. A. unit and expects to serve with that association in France.

Word has been received here of the safe arrival "somewhere in Europe" of Lieut. Horace Zealand Landon of Bordentown, N. J., son of Professor and Mrs. S. W. Landon, formerly of this city, where Mr Landon was principal of the high school. Lieutenant Landon sailed late in Septemer with his companny, the 101st Massachusetts engineers. their home at 384 Main street yesterday afternoon for a sale of food, candy and practical household articles under the Daughters of the American Revolution tea also being served at a nominal charge. The proceeds of the sale, which was well of articles for the comfort bags which

In one of the hardest fought "booze" cases before city court in some time, James Linton of this city (colored) was found guilty Friday afternoon by a jury of the charge preferred against him by State's Attorney Martin of selling intoxicating liquors to soldiers and was sentenced by Judge Joseph Stearns in the county court room to not less than 10 nor more than 12 months at hard labor in the house of correction at Rutland. proceedings was entered at the county clerk's office Tuesday. The plaintiff is Elihu B. Taft and the defendants are Harry H. Rosenberg and Fanny Power of Friedlander & Frank on North Wincoski avenue, but had a change of heart over night. The value of the whiskey was placed at $10. He was to have been tried heart. Harry H. Rosenberg and Funny Rosen-berg of Springfield, Mass., and Hyman Fabricant of New York city. The trouble Fabricant of New York city. The trouble concerns a mortgage on a lot of land with dwelling house thereon. It is situated at the corner of North Wincoski avenue and Decatur street.

Trial. After a good heart-to-heart talk had been given the man, he promised to follow the safe and narrow path in the future. He will spend the 90 days ensuing in the custody of the sheriff.

A rather unusual occurrence took place yesterday at the local navy recruiting station when twin brothers enlisted in this arm of the country defense. The young men are from Brattleboro, Lincoln D. and Leon M. Adams. Another young man from the same place to enlist was Alwin D. Wright. All three signed up as apprenticed seamen, second class. They will be transferred to the training station at Norfolk, Va., at once. Hugh B. Jones of Montpelier was physically disqualified on account of being color blind.

A report just received at the State headquarters of the Vermont Chapter of the American Red Cross in this city gives a comparative record of member ship for the various chapters of the New England division. This record shows that out of 51 chapters in the New England division, the Vermont Chapter stands ninth, having a population of 363,700, a membership of 49,461, giving this chapter a percentage of 13.60. The Athol (Mass.) chapter has the highest percentage in the New England division, 33.29. The average

Two Burlington boys were recently honored at Holy Cross College, Worces-ter, Mass., by being elected presidents of their respective classes. Timothy F. Daley, who was graduated from the Burlington high school in the class of '16, heads the sophomore class, while Leo J. Casey, who was graduated from St. John's preparatory school at Danvers, Mass., this year, is the leader of the freshman class. There are 226 freshmen at the college this year, the largest entering class since the college was founded,

Percy C. Judd, U. V. M., '10, has been engaged as instructor in electrical engineering at the University of Vermont. He will spend part of his time in the signal corps department. This completes engineering. Up to this time it has been necessary to utilize some of the senior engineers as instructors. Mr. Judd, who has been with the Fairbanks & Morse company during the greater part of the time since his graduation, was called away from the reserve officers' training camp at Plattsburgh to take this new position.

Bishop and Mrs. G. Y. Bliss received a letter Monday from their son, J. Isham Bliss, who went to France early in the summer to drive a field ambulance. The government recently took over this service and those who continued in it were obliged unable to get into the army, he decided to go into Y. M. C. A. work. He writer that there are many American soldiers on the streets of Paris but no one expects an early termination of the war. He has met President Benton and several former branches of the service.

The athletic committee of the University each of the class football teams this fall, the athletic association paying half the expenses of this coach, while the members of the class pay the other half. Each class will be allowed to select its own coach. It is expected that four good football men can be obtained here in the city to take up this work. The four classes will play a regular schedule of games, the first one being scheduled for next Saturinstating varsity athletics at mid-year but no definite action has been taken.

Oliver "Bean" Latour was sentenced to not less than four nor more than six months at hard labor in the house of correction at Rutland in the county Judge Stearns. Latour was charged by gal sale of intoxicating liquor. On the Enright, Latour changed his plea of not guilty entered in city court a few days ago to one of guilty. Had he not the advice of his counsel, would have had a jury trial. For this purpose the jurymen were present, but were dismissed when the man's change of heart became known.

Major Harry A. Leonhaeuser, professor versity will be allowed to send 24 of its there and attending the public graduates or undergraduates, who have private schools in that vicinity, camp to be held at Camp Devens, Ayer, lington high school. She was married Mass., beginning January 5. Each college to Dr. Lund in June, 1879; and has lived in the country having a well established military course is being allowed this privilege. These men will join the camp in addition to the large number of mer to be selected from the regulars and national army for training.

The Hon. Hamilton S. Peck and the Hor Elias Lyman each quietly enjoyed a birthday anniversary Monday. Senator Peck was 72 years old and Mr. Lyman was 68. of 1870, and also members of the same college fraternity. Both have been strenuous, persistent workers and both have been unusually successful in their respective occupations. Both may fittingly receive the congratulations of their wide circle of upon their records at this birth day and at the very notabler mental and physical vigor which each possesses and which gives abundant promise of man years of active usefulness for each,

Thomas Reeves and Martin S. Vilas en tered a petition for foreclosure against Austin Bartumy and Emily Bartumy of Williston at the county clerk's office Tuesday. The petitioners claim that on February 11, 1913, the defendants duly parcel of land situated on the north side of the main highway between Williston village and this city. This note was for the sum of $400 and was made payable to the petitioners on or before eight years of the date thereon with interest. Payments of the sum of $50 were to be made each year on or before October 12 until the said $400 was paid. To recover the amount of this note the petitioners, therefore, enter suit. The case will be tried at the March term of county court

A communication addressed to the presi ent of the University of Vermont he cently arrived from the war department, saying that under the act of Congress May 4, 1916, to increase the number of cadets at the United States Military Academy at West Point, there are now nine vacancies for admission to the academy of honor graduates of "honor schools" is the military. Competitive examinations will be held next March for the purpose of making appointments from the success ful candidates. The president of the University of Vermont is requested to nom nate one graduate, or undergraduate, of he university, who has achieved distinc tion in the military courses of the college, to take this examination in March. If successful, this candidate will enter West Point in June, 1918.

four bottles of whiskey; all I took was three." Such was the statement of Dave Deforge of the Interval road in city cour charge of petit larceny. On Tuesday Deforge had pleaded not guilty to the charge of stealing four bottles of whiskey last Saturday from the licensed place of Friedlander & Frank on North key was placed at $10. He was to have been tried before a jury in the near future, but his plea of guilty yesterday saved the State the expense of such a

OBITUARY.

Miss Elisa Lawson

Miss Elisa Lawson died Friday morning at the home of Mrs. Guy T. Harris, 54 South Champlain street, at the age of 75 years. The body was removed to the funeral parlors of Read & Dower at 184 Pearly street, where the funeral service was held Sunday afternoon at 1:20. Intrement was in the family lot at Hinesburg.

George L. Penniman.

News was received in the city Thursday of the death of George L. Penniman at Los Angeles, Cal., on Thursday night. Mr. Penniman was a former resident of this city, and was manager for the Swift company. He leaves in his family his mother, Mrs. L. A. Penniman, of this city, and his wife, who was of Los Angeles.

Mr. Penniman, who was 47 years of age, had been ill for six months, but his death was not expected, and it came as a great shock to his relatives and friends here. He was born in Winooski. He lived at one time in Highgate and in Swanton.
The funeral services were held at Los Angeles Saturday afternoon at three

Mrs. Lucy Bartholomew.

Mrs. Lucy Bartholomew died Friday night at her home, 187 Bank street, aged 56 years. She had been an invalid for some time. Her husband, Henry Bartholomew died a few months ago. She is survived by one daughter, Della, of this city. The body was removed to the home of her niece, Mrs. C. Dunn, 88 Pearl street. The funeral was held at St. Mary's Cathedral Monday morning, with burial in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Frank Brown.

Frank Brown, for many years an em-ploye at the postoffice, died very suddenly of heart trouble Sunday morning at his ne at 113 College street.

Mr. Brown was born in Waterbury No-vember 27, 1858. He is survived by one sister, Miss Eliza Brown, with whom he lived. He was a brother of the late N. K

Mr. Brown was a member of Waskingto Lodge, F. & A. M., Burlington Lodge, Protective Order of Elks, and the New England Order of Protection.

Services were held at the house Tues-day morning at ten o'clock and the body was taken on the 11:05 o'clock train to Waterbury, where the interment was

' Joseph A. Caine.

Joseph Arthur, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Caise of 48 Hayward street, died at 10:20 Saturday night of gangrene appendicitis, aged 17 years. He had been ill five days. He is survived by his father and mother, by three brothers, William H., George H. and Jed H.; and by two sisters, Rosetta and Blanche. The funera was held Tuesday morning at nine o'clock at St. Joseph's Church. Burial was in Mt. Calvary cemetery.

Mrs. Edward E. Willis.

Mrs. Edward E. Willis of 59 North at a local hospital after a four months at a local hospital after a four months illness, aged 35 years. Mrs. Willis, whose maiden name was Mary Maude Stowell, was born in New York city. Her mar-riage to Mr. Willis took place 11 years

Besides her husband, Mrs. Willis is sur-Mary Stowell of this city; a sister, Miss brothers, now in service in Texas. She was a communicant of St. Paul's Church. At the time of her death she was noble grand of Antonia Rebekah Lodge.

The funeral will be held at St. Paul's Church at two o'clock this afternoon, with Mrs. Elizabeth Bowman, wife of Dr. William B. Lund, died at her home, 58 Pearl street, Monday, Mrs. Lund had been in failing health for several years nce and tactics at the and had been confined to her bed for University of Vermont, has received word five weeks. She was born in Westford from the war department that this uni- June 17, 1839, spending her early life taken the military courses which the col-lege offers, to the third officers' training and for two or three years in the Burin this city ever since.

Mrs. Lund was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and was active in religious work, being a teacher and officer in the Sunday school. She was especially interested in the cause of temperance and was president of the local Woman's Christian Temperance Union for many years. She was a woman of refined and cultivated tastes, of an amiable and generous disposition A further connection between the two is and formed many enduring friendhusband and several nephews

> The funeral was held from late residence Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock. Burial was in Elmwood avenue cemetery.

Daniel H. Wall.

Daniel H. Wall died Monday afternoon about two o'clock at the home of his sister, Mrs. Margaret Allen, at 13 tuberculosis. He was 48 years of age Beside his sister, he is survived by one brother, Michael Wall. The funeral was held Wednesday morning at Mary's Cathedral.

HELD FOR TRIAL.

wo Alleged Liquor Thieves Arraigned in City Court.

Joseph Smith of this city, who has been in the county jail since Sunday after-noon, charged with having stolen several bottles of Rhine wine from the license place of K. Zeskind on Battery street early Sunday morning, was arraigned in city court Tuesday afternoon. He pleaded not guilty to the charge.

ound the man over on representation of State's Attorney Martin to the pres ent term of county court in the sum $700 on the charge of burglary. For want of a bondsman Smith was remanded nack to the sheriff's custody.

The State had eight witnesses on hand Tuesday, Kolman Zeskind, W. E. Colins. Oliver Valyou, George Poulos, William Horseband, Gilbert Fagga, Joseph Mitchell and P. J. Russell.

Dave Deforge, who, it is alleged, stole four bottles of whiskey from the licensed place of Friedlander & Frank on North Winoski avenue Saturday, and who was placed in fall Monday, was arraigned in court Tuesday and pleaded not guilty to the charge preferred against him by City Grand Juror Horton. Deforge will the man could not furnish ball in the sum of $200 he was sent back to jail.

CHRISTMAS BAGS.

Red Cross Expects 500 from Burlington within a Week. Word was received yesterday by Mrs. F. W. Ward, chairman of the Burlington branch of the Red Cross, from Mr. Pratt. hairman of the Vermont chapter, that the State of Vermont is expected to furnish Christmas bags to each of its men in the army. Burlington's quota is 500 bags, con-Playing cards, khaki handkerchief, writing pads, pipes, tobacco, cigarettes, pus-zies, joke books, chewing gum, sweet chocolate or hard candies, mouth organs.

front know that they are not forgotten and that we who stay at home are ready to make any and every sacrifice, that they may have at least some measure of cheer at Yuletide, even though surrounded by the horrors of war.

CHRISTMAS MAIL

Directions for Sending Matter to So diere and Sattors.

The bureau of navigation, navy depart ment, Washington, D. C., is sending out the following literature to newspapers all over the country for the information and guidance of the public as to the arrange-ments for the sending of Christmas mail of the Atlantic:

season, special attention is being given to the delivery of Christmas mail to enlisted men serving abroad. Arrangement have been perfected by the navy, war and postoffice departments whereby ary forces in Europe and to crews of United States naval vessels serving in European waters will be delivered by Christmas morning. Without the fullest co-operation on the part of the public it will be impossible to accomplish this

men are urged to observe the rules adopted by the navy, war and postoffice departments, particularly in three essential

1. Mails to reach sallors and soldiers by Christmas must be posted not later than November 15.

2. Every package must bear conspicu words "Christmas Mall." the complete address of the person for whom it is intended, and, in the upper lefthand corner, the name and address of the wrapped as to admit of easy inspection by the postmaster. No parcel will be dispatched to Europe which has not the postmaster's certificate that it contains no prohibited articles.

3. All mail for men serving on board vessels of the Atlantic fleet and in Eurovessels of the Atlantic fleet and in European waters should be addressed to the U. S. S. ____, care of Postmaster, New York, N. Y. All mail intended for men serving in the Pacific and Asiatic fleets should be addressed to the U. S. S. ____, Pacific attellars with Services Co. Pacific station, via San Francisco, Cal., Asiatic station, via San Francisco, Cal.

AMUSEMENTS

Geraldine Farrar Greeted by Big Audi ence at University Gymnasium.

Geraldine Farrar, America's greatest day, appeared last evening at the University of Vermont gymnasium before the biggest audience ever gathered in that auditorium. It was the beautiful diva's first appearance anywhere in Vermont, and following the concert she expressed before so appreciative an audience. She

The program, as previously published, was carried out, and in addition several encores were given. After the Habanera "Carmen," which ended her first group of songs, Miss Farrar was recalled and in answer to the applause sat accompaniment for "Mighty Lak' a Rose." Her second group comprised five songs in German, and, recalled, she sang "The War Baby's Lullaby," recently compose and dedicated to Miss Farrar by Adel Farrington. Her final number, the aria "Un bel di," from Madama Butterfly, brought the recital program to an end. can flag draped upon her, played and viting, finally, the audience to join in with her, which it did. The singer was, of course, received with tremendous thusiasm. She looked very lovely in a closely fitting, trailing gown of white and she wore pearls in her jet black hair. Miss Farra, however, did not monop lize the program, her assisting artists being most cordially received. Arthur Hackett ,tenor, who has sung at four of the Montpelier festivals, was regreeted by his many Vermont friends At the end of his group of French numbers, he sang "Il Neige," by Bem-berg. Following his songs in English, he sang as an encore "I Bring You Heartsease," by Branscombe. The apback to the stage to acknowledge if twice, and Miss Farrar herself sent him out again to sing, his number this time being "The Star," Rogers. Miss Irma Seydel, a young and sonable violinist, soloist with the Bosimpression with her playing of "Indian Lament," and the 'Liebesfreud," the two Kreisler numbers, which the mas-ter played here last January. Miss Seydel had little to fear in compar ison for she played them both quisitely. Following her "Ave Maria" and "Seventh Hungarian Dance," she gave as an encore "Canzonetta" A. d'Abrosio. She was warmly plauded, and deservedly so. For al Ithe artists Richard Epstein admirable planist, provided a dis-criminating and distinctive accompani-

ARSON THE CHARGE.

Case against Mrs. Ellen Phillips Begur in County Court.

Mrs. Ellen Phillips of Bolton and Bur ington, who on Tuesday entered suit of Montpeller to recover insurance on her farm buildings in Bolton that were destroyed by fire in December of 1915, was court yesterday on the charge of arson oulidings in question.

Court resumed session after a recess luring which Judge F. L. Fish has been to be present yesterday. Judge E. L. Waterman presided.

ondent pleaded not guilty when she was arraigned. It took nearly an hour to secure a jury, as each side challenged several of the men drawn.

C. B. Andrews of Richmond, J. H. Doug-ass of Essex, Gliman Foote of Charlotte, H. C. Humphrey of Burlington, F. E. Kimball of Burlington, Samuel Keeler of Easex, A. E. Lamson of South Burlington Arthur S. Morgan of Colchester, W Metcalf of Williston, J. S. Sweet of Huntington, F. H. Shepardson of Richmon Sugene Towne of Milton.

State's Attorney Allen Martin is assisted in the prosecution of the case by Rufus E. Brown of this city. The respondent is rep-resented by M. G. Leary and V. A. Bul-

The original papers in the case were The original papers in the case were made out by Hopkins, then State's attorney and the case was to have been tried more than a year ago. On the opening day of court, however, it was found that the respondent had injured herself so that the trial had to be delayed.

Three witnesse were called in the case yesterday. Clark Streeter, who lives near yesterday. Clark Streeter, who lives near to the home of Mrs. Phillips, testified to seeing the barn and house on fire on the night of December 7, 1915. Harlan W. Kemp, secretary of the Union Mutual Fire 'Insurance company of Montpelier,' told of the application for insurance and the filing van, 30 Church St.—Adv, ## pencils, etc. The local branch must have the co-operation of every society and of every person in Burlington, that these bags may be sent by November 1, one week hence. Let us make our boys at the MADE OF IRON

That is, iron is an essential constituent of pure, healthy blood. Peptiron, the new iron tonic, combine pepsin, iron, nux, celery and other blood and stomach tonics that physicians pres-

It is a wonderful corrective of anemia, paleness, languor, nervousness—whether caused by hard work, worries—over-use of salts and other blood-depleting cathartics that are doing so much harm to many people just now—or any other cause. Peptiron will restore the iron strength that you must have for cheerful performance of daily duties.

Peptiron is in convenient pill form, chocolate-coated and pleasant to take.

of the proof of loss. Gilbert Woodworth. a near neighbor of the respondent, testified to waking up in the night and seeing the barn aftre and later seeing the house ablase. Earl B. Smith, agent of the Union Mutual Fire Insurance company for the town of Bolton, testified in regard to his part of the filing of the proof of loss and of the application. He personally went to the house and investigated the situation. Mr. Woodworth was later recalled to the stand and testified in regard to the orig-inal cost of the house and of its probable worth at the time it was destroyed

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

of Rushing Season Shows 48 Pledged to Fraternities.

The end of the rushing season resulted in 49 men pledging themselves to fraternities Monday. While others may be expected throughout the fall this represents the bulk of the men of the freshmen class who will join fraternities.

Alpha Tau Omega announces the pledg-ing of G. S. Churchill, L. C. Churchill and H. D. Crossman, all of South Londonderry, B. C. Greene of Saranac Lake, N. Y., P. G. Herrick of Pawlet, I. G. Taylor of Springfield, and E. S. Wallis of Walts-

two sophomores, R. G. Hill and T. R. Dyer. They also pledged the following freshmen: H. E. Barker of Sunapee, N. H., D. E. Bixby of Essex, M. W. Ellsworth of Cambridge, O. K. Jenney of Stowe, H. Lathrop of Arlington, M. R. Randall of Townshend and L. C. Spiller of South

Veron.

The following men pledged themselves to Delta Psi: G. L. Best of St. Albans, W. B. Buckham of Hyde Park, K. F. Cleaves of Montpelier, C. M. Sargent of Paterson, N. J., S. Campbell of Wellesley, Mass., and

M. L. Scott of Randoolph.

The men who accepted bids from Kappa Sigma are: R. M. Warren, R. L. Smalley and F. H. Jenkins, all of Morrisville, D. E. Salmond of Perkinsville, H. R. Atkins of North Hero, C. C. Poubert of Hyde Park, Mass., W. G. Creaser of Ludlow, H. W. Paige of Westford and C. M. Way and G. N. Haigh of this city.

Lambda Iota pledged R. F. Brown of North Adams, Mass., H. M. Grant of Adams, Mass, F. J. Lawliss of Barre, H. E. Rockwell of Burlington, J. H. Shaw of Manchester Center, F. A. Staples of Wil-liamstown, Mass., C. A. Winslow of North Clarendon and P. J. Hill, '20, of Newport. Phi Delta Theta announce the pledging of S. W. Converse of Bridport, J. B. Dixon of Buffalo, N. Y., H. P. Sharples of New York, H. R. Loomis of Burlington, F. Lyons of Billerica, Mass., J. P. Marr of Montpeller, A. T. Way of Burlington and B. Bosworth, '19, of New York, Sigma Nu pledged L. S. Bartlett of Richmond, C. Wriston, '20, of Florence, Mass., A. L. Thrall of Rutland, S. J. O'Neil of West Rutland, E. M. Whitcomb of Essex Junction, F. S. Towle of Enceburg Falls, J. R. Jennings of St. Albans and W. D.

Goodrow of Dalton, Mass.
Willard Davenport and F. S. Pease, Jr., of Burlington, E. C. Melby of North Ferrisburg and R. J. Finley of Buffalo, N. Y., The sophomore class met in the Science hall Monday morning and elected the following officers: President, P. J. Hill; vice-president, Miss Pease; treasurer, I. W. Gale; secretary, Miss Swasey. The members elected to the executive board are M. C. Bond, D. H. Doane, P. K. French, Miss Abbot and Miss Young. A manager of football will be elected later. choir appointments have been made as follows: Dorothy Lawrence, '19, Margaret Smart, '20, Norma Perkins, '18, Margaret Whittemore, '19, E. A. Spaulding, '19, R. M. Warren, '21, R. F. Brown, '18, R. Parker, '19; clarinet, H. E. Barker,

'21; violin, A. H. Cheney, '20; organ blower, H. Bowley, '19. At a meeting of the junior class Fri-President, Alfred Krayer; vice-president, Florence Cummings; treasurer, Arthur Hogan; secretary, Barbara Brown; executive board, Douglas McSweeney, Joseph Johnson, Ralph Drowne, Catherine Casey, Susan Delano; football manager, Leon

There was an unusually large attendance, estimated at 750, at the joint reception given by the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. of the university to the reshmen in the gymnasium Tuesday evening. It was a fitting opening to the social life of the college year. During the early part of the evening, while the guests were arriving, an informal reception was held, giving the strangers in the assembly the opportunity to get acquainted. An improvised college orchestra did excellent duty during the evening.

The program proper was opened by an address of welcome by C. D. Pierce, Jr., president of the Y. M. C. A. This was followed by a soprano solo by Dorothy Lawrence, '19. Miss Fair-banks, a returned missionary from India, gave an address which was listened to intently by all present. Miss Fair-banks is also to speak before the Y. W. C. A. this afternoon. Following another selection by the orchestra, Pro-fessor H. F. Perkins talked to the students for a few minutes, giving them some good advice for the coming year. Refreshments of ice cream and cake vere served, following which the students danced until 11 o'clock, by permission of the college authorities. At chased by the various fraternities for "midnight spread."

At a meeting of the freshman chass Tuesday the following officers were elected: President, Edward Melby; vicepresident, Bernice Byington; secretary, Ruth Bali; treasurer, John Dixon; foot-ball manager, Phillip Branon. The Delta Mu fraternity announces the pledging of Spencer Burnham Caldwell, the ice cream which remained was pur

M., '21, of Enosburg Falls; Newell Wal-ton Glies, M., '21, of Amherst, Mass.; Harold Glison Haskell, M., '21, of West Pawlet; Luther C. Heidger, M., '21, of Pawiet; Luther C. Heidger, M., '21, of Greensboro, Ohio; Loren Fred Richards, M., '21, of South Lyndeboro, N. H.; Byron Calvin Tillotson, M., '21, of Montpelier; Kenneth James Tillotson, M., '21, of Proc-tor; Percy Coupland Fisher, M., '20, of Allendale, N. J.; Edward Leo McGinley, M., '20, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

The Sigma Phi society announces the pledging of H. Irving Holbrook. '21, of MAKES GOOD IN THE NORTH.

A cough remedy must be good to give weather. Bertram Bros., Green Bay, Wis., write: "We have used Foley's Honey and lawns.

THE OLD BEE HIVE OCTOBER 25, 1917

We Announce for Friday and Saturday

An Extraordinary Exhibit of

Betty Wales Dresses

The most charming silk frocks for dancing and afternoon wear, as well as the smart new youthful serge dresses for college girls, business women, etc., all to sell at exceedingly moderate prices.

This special two day exhibit is arranged through the courtesy of the designers and makers of "Betty Wales" dresses, who will exhibit here for these two days their complete

Smart Evening Gowns and Street Dresses

A showing so complete, so varied that it will be a wonderful treat for every woman to see the charming and varied ideas that make the "Betty Wales" dresses so exceedingly popu-

You are cordially invited to this very view broad dress exhibit even though thought of buy-

An Excellent Collection of New Coats at $25 and $37.50

"Coats this season MUST BE properly designed to look

That was our answer to a customer who had expressed pleasure at the fact that every coat she had tried on had seemed to "set so well on her."

The loose or very slightly fitted lines this year call for SKILLED DESIGNING and when you try on so many coats that "just hang" and simply refuse to fall into graceful lines remember that t hedesigning skill is absent.

Ours is a popular center for coat buyers because we offer not merely coats, but coats skillfully designed and of certified style correctness.

$3 Blankets $2.45 pair

Thick wool finished bed blankets in white and gray with pink, blue and tan borders, a blanket that we can sell at this price only because we bought them a year ago at the prices prevailing then. On to-day's market you cannot buy as good a blanket for $3.50.

Women's Fleece Lined Union Suits $1

Pure white, heavy cotton suits with fleece lining in the high neck, long leeves and Dutchess neck, half sleeve styles, extra large sizes $1.25, actually worth $1.25 and $1.50 per

BUY A LIBERTY BOND TO-DAY

"HEARD ON THE STREET." a White River Junction Landmark

definitely throwing away 5,000 men a day, and then again perhaps she can't. That it is still possible to make a go

That after denouncing the middlemen who force up prices, some of the farmers are preparing to hold their potatoes to get more out of the consumer. That in the minds of a good many men the income tax was a most beneficial act of social justice until the exemption was lowered to take them in. That one way of joining the conservaion of resources movement is waiting before raking up leaves until the wind blows them over to your neighbors

That young Rockefeller has had his shoes tapped to help on the conservathat he inks his stocking to hide the mothers who are sending their five and six boys to the war, but they haven't anything on the many that are sending their only sons. That our army at the front doesn't fear that the German trench line can't be broken. The only people that are wor-lecture pay, as the people will come so rying are politicians safe in the hang-as to be able to say they have heard it. That with the government asking for ids for 1,000,000 pounds of turkey for Thanksgiving, there is little incentive for the prudent bird to work very hard to find fattening food. That the fashion notes have it that women's evening gowns will not be cut so low. Perhaps this is not so much due to modesty as to a perception that bones are not always pretty.

That the question is asked why the poor people of the cities don't move out in the country where food rots on the ground because of scarcity of labor. Unfortunately, a square meal of garden stuff is not usually accepted as a good substitute for the picture show.

MARRIED. SMART-BALKEMA-On Saturday, Octhe war preparations are being badly tober 20, at Chicago, Saloma, daughter of mismanaged as nothing has been done Mrs. Katherine Balkema, to Samuel Chips to feed the great crowds of sightseers at man Smart, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G.